

Balkan Enlightenment

HSPDS, vol. 4 (2024)

Co-editors

Željko Kaluđerović and Dragan Prole

Call for Chapters

The co-editors and the NKUA Applied Philosophy Research Lab Press invite authors to contribute to the 4th volume of the Hellenic-Serbian Philosophical Dialogue Series entitled Balkan Enlightenment, that is due for publication by the end of 2024. We welcome original manuscripts on topics exploring the intersection of Enlightenment ideas and Balkan intellectual history, cultural dynamics, and societal transformations. Submissions may delve into the reception of Enlightenment philosophy, its impact on Balkan thought, and the emergence of new philosophical currents within the region. We encourage contributions that examine the exchange of ideas between Balkan intellectuals and their European counterparts during the Enlightenment era, as well as contemporary reflections on the legacy and relevance of Enlightenment ideals in the Balkans today.

i. Guidelines for manuscripts

Language: English.

Extent: Flexible.

Format: Manuscripts should include a short abstract (150 words max), and 5-10 keywords. Authors should also provide affiliation, (preferably, institutional) E-mail address, and ORCID iD.

Referencing: Footnotes and references should be arranged according to Chicago Manual of Style / Notes and Bibliography.

ii. Deadline

Submissions are due by November 30, 2024; no deadline extension will be given.

iii. Submission process

Please submit manuscripts via the Press's online platform at <https://ebooks.epublishing.ekt.gr/index.php/apr/>. Alternatively, you can submit by email to philosophylab@philosophy.uoa.gr with the subject heading "Balkan Enlightenment." Inquiries can also be directed to the same email address with the same subject heading. You may also contact the editors at zeljko.kaludjerovic@ff.uns.ac.rs and proledragan@ff.uns.ac.rs respectively.

iv. Licensing, tier, copyright, indexing & abstracting

The volume will be published both in print and online under a Creative Commons BY 4.0 International License. Authors will retain the copyright of their published manuscripts, as well as unrestricted publishing rights. The National Library of Greece will assign both online and print ISBNs to the volume. Additionally, each chapter will receive a unique CrossRef DOI and will be featured on the Press' website.

The Hellenic-Serbian Philosophical Dialogue Series is jointly published by the NKUA Applied Philosophy Research Laboratory, Department of Philosophy, National and Kapodistrian University of Athens, and the Faculty of Philosophy, University of Novi Sad. The electronic publishing is managed by the National Documentation Center.
